Re: Letter of recommendation

I am pleased to write this letter to provide a professional reference for Milclean USA LLC.

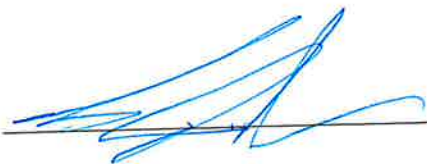

Our experience with Milclean USA has been exceptionally positive. We engaged their services on an emergency basis following significant damage to our facilities caused by Hurricane Milton. Within less than 24 hours of our initial contact, the Milclean team had fully mobilized a workforce of over 100 personnel and deployed all necessary equipment to begin large-scale water damage remediation efforts.

Their rapid response, seamless coordination, and operational readiness were critical in stabilizing the situation and enabling us to safely resume operations. The team arrived fully prepared, with specialized equipment's and a clear action plan, demonstrating both professionalism and efficiency under pressure.

Throughout the process, the Milclean USA team showed outstanding dedication, agility, and attention to detail. Their commitment to quality, safety, and client service makes them an exceptionally reliable partner, whether the need is rapid response to hurricane or water damage remediation.

We confidently recommend Milclean USA to any organization seeking dependable, high-quality cleaning and remediation services. Should you require any further information regarding our experience, please feel free to contact us.

Sincerely,

Edward J. Price
